The McKinney-Vento Act, Title X, Part C ensures educational rights and protections for children and youth experiencing homelessness. This act specifies that child(ren) should be allowed to attend their school of origin or zoned school while the dispute is being resolved, and transportation will be provided. In addition, the act states you have the right to obtain the assistance of advocates or attorneys to assist with the dispute. If you are not satisfied with the resolution of the dispute you have the right to appeal to the State of Florida's Homeless Coordinator at (850) 245-0709.
